

General Sales Conditions

Rates and regulations:

All courses are held in French (translator at your expense - we can give you some contacts if possible but the reservation and the financial agreement has to be arranged in between the translator and yourself).

The prices are all included. We accept payments by bank transfer or by cash and credit card on site. Your registration is considered upon the receipt of a deposit of € 200.00 per course and person. The consideration of the registration triggers the sending of a confirmation and of the course's program. The balance of training course is due before the start or at the latest on site. Any person who does not update its regulations may not be allowed to attend the course.

Material:

Each student must bring their own work tools and is responsible for its equipment. The Alexandre de Paris' Academy accepts no liability for theft, loss or damage of any personal item belonging to the student.

Absence or Cancellation on behalf of the student :

In the absence of the student, no refund will be made. The payment (or deposit) will be credited to attend another training course within one year if the absence is justified by the production of an official document and due to medical or/and a force majeure reason.

Cancellation on our behalf :

The academy reserves its right to postpone or cancel your registration if the training program has to be changed for reasons of internal organization and/or in case of force majeure. In that case the payment (or deposit) can be refund or will be credited to attend another training course within one year.

Image rights:

Each student agrees that his image can be used for internal and external communication to promote the activity of the Alexandre de Paris' Academy. (Videos and photos taken during the internship by our teaching team). Upon a written request addressed to the academy, a trainee may request that his image is not used.

